Description

Located in a quiet, well-connected street in Kortenbergh, this spacious home at Beekstraat 57 offers no less than 214 m² of living space, with a flexible layout suited for families, co-housing, or those looking for extra room.

You enter through an inviting entrance hall that leads into a bright dining and living area. The kitchen connects naturally to the space, with a veranda extending the living area toward the outdoors. On the ground floor, you will also find a garage, a bathroom with toilet, a separate guest toilet, a practical laundry area, a large storage space, and access to a pleasant terraced outdoor area. The property also includes a crawl space for additional storage.

The first floor features three full-sized bedrooms and an additional kitchen, offering possibilities for extended family living or a separate unit.

The second floor consists of a large attic space with strong potential to be converted into additional living space, such as extra bedrooms, an office, or a hobby room.

With an EPC label D, there is no renovation obligation, allowing you to move in or update the property at your own pace.

In terms of location, the property is ideally situated between Leuven and Brussels, offering easy access to both cities.

Nearby, you will find:

- Kortenbergh Train Station with direct connections to Leuven and Brussels
- Park van Kortenbergh for walking and outdoor activities
- Brussels Airport at approximately 10–15 minutes by car
- GC Colomba, a local multi-sports and community centre
- Several schools, shops, and supermarkets within close reach
- Easy access to major roads such as the E40
